

Table of Contents

A Note from the Editors

Masahiko Minami, Harumi Kobayashi, Mineharu Nakayama, and Hidetosi Sirai

List of Contributors

I. PLENARY

Accusative Subjects and Defective Clauses in the Grammar of an English-speaking Child with Specific Language Impairment

Andrew Radford

II. SPECIAL LECTURE

Corpus-based SLA Research: State of the Art of Learner Corpus Studies

Yukio Tono

III. GENERAL SESSION PAPERS

< Issues Related to First Languages >

Use of the Connective ‘Datte’ and Development of Theory of Mind

Taeko Yamamoto, Tomoko Matsui, and Peter McCagg

Difficulty of Processing Japanese and Korean Center-embedding Constructions

Mineharu Nakayama, Sun-Hee Lee, and Richard L. Lewis

Forms of Parental Directives in Triadic Family Interactions

Hiroko Kasuya and Kayoko Uemura

Conceptualizing Created Objects

Eric McCready

< Issues Related to Second Languages and Bilingualism >

Keeping Japanese Alive: Narrative Discourse Skills in English-Japanese Bilingual Children

Masahiko Minami

Bilingual Mandarin-, Russian- and Spanish-English Speakers’ Grammatical Proficiency in Their Two Language

Gisela Jia, Doris Aaronson, Michael Young, Suhong Chen, and Jack Wagner

The Acquisition Order and Comprehension Process of Japanese Receptive Grammar of Second Language Learners

Yoshiko Nakagawa and Takamasa Koyama

Relative Clause Production in Child L2 Japanese
Tomomi Hasegawa

The Acquisition Order of Viewpoint-Related Voice in Japanese as a Foreign/Second Language
Mari Tanaka

Testing the Dual Coding Hypothesis in Remembering Kana
Sachiko Matsunaga

Abstracts in Japanese